2025 ROGER DE LE PASTURE / ROGIER VAN DER WEYDEN PRIZE

The international non-profit scientific association, Roger de le Pasture / Rogier van der Weyden hereby calls for nominations for the biennial "Roger de le Pasture / Rogier Van der Weyden Prize" to be awarded in 2025.

This year the prize will be awarded to a Master's thesis related to the history of the figurative arts in the Southern Netherlands during the Burgundian period (late 14th – early 16th centuries). The award amounts to two thousand five hundred euros (2500 €).

The work should be written in Dutch, English, French, German, Italian or Spanish, and must have been defended during the academic years 2022, 2023 or 2024. Candidates will include with their application: a summary of their work as well as the jury results and a recommendation letter from their advisor.

A digital version (PDF) of the thesis must reach the Association before January 15, 2025, at the email address of Mr. Serge HUSTACHE, President of the International Scientific Association Roger de le Pasture / Rogier van der Weyden: serge.hustache@skynet.be. Each submission will be acknowledged by email. The thesis will be added to the Association's collection in the Tournai City Library and, for ten years, it may only be consulted with author's permission.

The Board of Directors of the Association is competent for any and all problems relating to the prize or for failure to comply with the above regulations. The Board's decisions are final and no reasons will be given for non-selection.
